SKY SURVIVOR

ROUND 10 PICKS IN BY 6.30PM THURSDAY 10 MAY

Watch Out Ladies

Five first year players took to greens on Sunday 29 April all with their eye on the First Year Singles title. Four games on the Sunday and one game Saturday 5 May to find the two players to contest the final. Top qualifier was Milika Nathan with 3 wins and 77 points for, followed close behind by Judi Farkash with 3 wins and 76 shots for.

The rink was set, with a nervous father (Peter Nathan) sat on the side watching, Nathan got down to business. First three ends were all Nathan's pulling out to a seven nil lead before Farkash picked up a three and a one to draw within three of Nathan. The next nine ends Nathan won seven of them picking up eleven shots, to Farkash's two ends and two shots. Nathan looked to have this in the bag (18-6). Nathan floundered losing her weight over the next four ends while Farkash showed some superb draw bowls picking up three, three, two and a one to peg Nathan back (18-15). Two consecutive ones to Nathan left her one shot short of the title. Farkash picked up a two to stay in the game (20-17). The following end Nathan picked up the one she needed to be crowned First Year Singles Champion for the season. This will sit nicely beside the 1-5 Year Women's Singles title she one a couple of weeks back. When asked about her win Nathan just smiled and clucked in the unassuming Nathan way.

Fours and Triples

Saturday and the BNH Champion of Champion Fours Men & Women got underway. In the women's, Birkenhead's Lauranne Croot, Adele Ineson, Connie Mathieson and Ruth Lynch (s) took on Hobsonville first round to come out the victors by one shot (17-18) and progress to round two. Up against a powerful the Browns Bay side of Elaine McClintock, Kerin Roberts, Christeen Dalzell & Anne Dorreen, Birkenhead went down by one shot (13-12). Browns Bay went on to win the final.

Over in the Men's, Birkenhead's Gary Wallace, Garry Cooley, Sandy Cleghorn and Lionel Drew (s) had drawn hot favourites Orewa's Ron Murdoch, Murray Vallance, Errol Koroi and David Eades (s). This is bowl and at the conclusion of the game Drew's four were the unexpected winners (8-11). Round two was a different story with Birkenhead going down to Warkworth.

Having made the Champion of Champion Men's Triples semi-finals the previous Sunday, Birkenhead's Mark Rumble, Peter Nathan, Nigel Drew (s) were one win away from the final and two from a centre title. Riverhead's Duane McDonald, Gordon Smith and Steve Cox (s) were all the stood in the way, and that's exactly what Riverhead did. Drew and company went down twenty one to seven and out of the completion. Riverhead went on to lose the final to Orewa's Errol Koroi (s), Murray Valance and Walter Howden (17-11). Disappointment for Riverhead's Steve Cox, Gordon Smith & Duane McDonald having made two finals in the one day and coming away runners-up in both.

1-5 Year Pairs Rescheduled

Due to both the 1-5 Year Singles Men's and Women's having to be rescheduled last month the 1-5 Year Pairs (Any Combination) has been rescheduled to 8.30am this coming week-end, Saturday 12 and Sunday 13 May. Entries close 5pm Thursday 10 May 2018.

Membership Draw On Hold

As of today the Wednesday and Friday Club Membership Draw has been put on hold. It has been brought to our attention by Internal Affairs we are unintentionally in breach of the gambling legislation. It is in breach of the legislation to offer alcohol in any form as a prize (or part of) for a raffle/membership draw. The days of fundraising with a bottle of rum or couple of bottles of wine up for a raffle prize are over. The Club must be particularly vigilant as we are a Class 4 gaming establishment. The Club Membership Draw will be back on Friday 25 May.

Closing Day & Prize Giving
