Croot Farkash Almost

After section play on Saturday in the BNH 1-5 Year Women's Pairs and BNH 1-5 Year Men's Pairs the only Birkenhead teams through to Sunday post section where Lauranne Croot and Judi Farkash in the women's and Jerry Belcher and Gary Beer in the Men's. Croot and Farkash with two wins scrapped through by one shot differential over Mairangi's Colleen Rice and Theresa Rogers also on two wins. Having lost to Rice and Rogers the differential was all important.

Sunday, semi-final time and up against Takapuna's Pam Colter and Barbara Williams, a win here and it's into the final and win they did beating Takapuna (20-7). The final against Glenfield's Tongan Commonwealth Games representative Caroline Dubois and Tee Ford. This one didn't go the Croot and Farkash's way going down (18-10), but a great effort by Lauranne Croot and first year Judi Farkash.

Belcher and Beer in the Men's event had three good wins (29-9, 19-14 & 26-12) and a plus thirty nine differential to nail top spot in their section and straight to the semi-finals. Sunday and it's semi-final time and up against Takapuna's Gordon Jenkins and Bob Telfer a win and next stop the final, but that's where Belcher and Beer's run stopped defeated by Takapuna (13-17).

BNH 1-5 Year Women's Pairs runners-up, Birkenhead's Lauranne Croot and Judi Farkash

Champions Knock Birkenhead Out

After the heady heights of taking out the Women's Champion of Champion Singles last weekend. It was a different story Saturday morning for Ruth Lynch accompanied by up and coming 1-5 year bowler Barbara Staal in the Women's Champion of Champion Pairs. Champion of Champion is never easy but first up opponents Browns Bay Kerin Roberts and Elaine McClintock is possibly as hard as it gets at centre level. Experience showed in the end with Roberts and McClintock narrowly beating Staal and Lynch (13-16). Roberts and McClintock went on to win there next two games comfortably (21-7 & 23-11) and the final over Sunnybrae's Jan Jones and Keryl Blackburn (17-8)

The Men's, Mark Rumble and Nigel Drew made it through the first round with a one shot win over Waimauku's Brad Mullins & Colin Calder (13-12). Round two and Rumble and Drew were up against Browns Bay's Ross Kelly and Tony Grantham, who had just beaten Manly's John Holdsworth and Denham Furnell (24-10). After the regulation 18 ends the scores were all locked up at 16 all. An extra end, Rumble and Drew holding two shots with two bowls to be played. Grantham with his last bowl drew a toucher to be one up on the head. Drew with his last bowl was unable to dislodge Grantham's shot bowl. It was not to be Birkenhead's day with Rumble and Drew going down (17-16)

Grantham and Kelly went on the win the final over Takapuna's John Jansen and Murray Mathieson (17-15) with Grantham racking up an impressive fifth centre title for the season.
