Semis for Richardson Munro

After the dizzy heights of the Nathan's win last weekend anything but another win just wouldn't do. The Centre Champion of Champions was first up with Adele Ineson and Mavis Smith having earned the honour in the Women's event. First round and a tight game against Hobsonville's Lu and Roberts, but that is where the girls event ended with a loss (14-13). In the Men's Mark Rumbel and Nigel Drew beat Hellensville's Connell and Clake (16-11) and went on to play Riverhead's Cox and McDonald in the last eight. Riverhead having just beaten Brown Bay comfortably (18-9) in the previous round went on to do the same against Rumble and Drew, with Birkenhead going down (10-22). The Women's 1-5 pairs Birkenhead didn't have any teams to cheer for, as out of the four team entered none were from Birkenhead.

The Men's 1-5 Pairs was a different story with two teams entered. To come through out of section play were Adam Richardson and Stacy Munro, with three wins and a -19 total net shots, but we suspect this is an error on the chart. Sunday saw Richardson and Munro drawn to play Takapuna's Jenkins and Telfer, win this and it's into the final. Sadly it was not to be Richardson and Munro's day, going out in the semis in one of those games you don't wish to recall the score.

Bowls NZ Centre Visit 2019

Confirmation that this meeting will be held at Orewa Bowling Club on 20th May at 6:00 pm
Members are encouraged to attend.

From Mark Cameron (Bowls New Zealand CEO)

Over the next 2-3 months, I (and a couple of Bowls NZ team members) are planning on getting around all 27 centres, similar to last winter. Simply a couple of hours to talk Bowls with anyone from within the local bowls community. The conversation topics include but are not limited to:

A quick recap on the past summer:

- Membership Numbers and Participation UP
- National Competition structures rejigged
- Summer of Bowls
- Communications: website / FB / video streaming / story telling
- Commercial Partners
- TV and Bowls3Five

Our plans for next summer

- Bowls3Five (TV, Interclub, Social and Junior Bowls3Five)
- Member Levies (freeing up membership categories)
- Facilities Update
- TV and Media partnerships
- National Competition structure
- Judicial Review
- National Rankings / Membership system
- High Performance Update
- Club Check Award and the Census

The session is intended as a general Q&A and the above topics are simply good starting points. I'm also keen to discuss with those interested, a pitch Bowls NZ are making with government around 'wellbeing in communities and inclusiveness – the role of bowling clubs'.
