Nationals

The Summerset National Open Championships Singles & Pairs 2020 kicked off in Christchurch last Thursday 2 January. Birkenhead's Daymon Pierson and Randall Watkins did the trip south to compete in both the singles and pairs. Watkins, a self-confessed "not a fancier of singles", unfortunately failed to qualify. While his traveling mate Pierson lost his first section play game to Mark Burgess, nephew of Birkenhead's Keith Burgess, but went on to win the next three and move into post section. Post section and win first up for Pierson against Methven's Jeff Nowell (21-19). The following round and Elmwood Park's and Blackjack Gary Lawson stood in the way of moving forward, and stand Lawson did eliminating Pierson (21-13). Lawson himself went out the following round to Broadbeach's Ryan Burnett (9-21).

Pairs, with Pierson off the front and Watkins skipping went through section play undefeated (24-18, 15-13, 20-10, 23-4) and not having to play the last two rounds. Post section saw Pierson and Watkins first up against the composite team of Bruce McNish and David Archer. Unfortunately that's where Birkenhead's hopes stopped with Pierson and Watkins going down (16-18) and bowing out. McNish and Archer went on to lose in the semi-finals.
