The Matthews Secret

The Matthews Memorial Pairs for the over 60s took place last Wednesday with a field of around twenty. The MetService forecast featured some showery weather during the day but that didn't stop the four games, one day, drawn pairs tournament from completion. The results are a closely guarded secret, but we have been able to find out that Lionel Drew and ?????? won the day, not sure of the results, while John Croy and Geoff Darby came runners-up.

Big Saturday Ahead

Saturday sees two greens of men's fours in action at Birkenhead for the first day of BNH Men's Fours, Sunday is knock out for both men's and women's at Birkenhead. Saturday also sees the Warriors first game of the regular season, watch it live on the big screen in full HD at Birkenhead Bowling Club. Stuie's hot tip for the week, Knights 13+

Weather Watch

Monday morning started patchy overhead and the forecast wasn't that flash with rain from about midday, easing to a shower or two at night. But this is Auckland and more particular Birkenhead where rain is often observed from the Club but not actually receiving any of it. But that wasn't the case and unfortunately the drizzle rolled in around 4pm and just hung there. All was not lost as cards were cut with wrong biases contributing to hospice, prizes given out and a meal put on at the end of the shortened evening. Next Monday 16 March is the last evening of the summer YOU Travel Birkenhead Social Bowls season and as is done at Birkenhead there will be more prizes than usual on offer and a meal with a little difference to finish the social bowls season off with.

YOU Travel Birkenhead Social Bowls results at a glance (09/03/20):
 1st – Tuis – Mike, Brian, Stewart (2 wins, 1 draw, 16 ends, 13 shots for)
 2nd – Bowling Stones – Ian, John, Robyn (2 wins, 1 draw, 16 ends, 12 shots for)
 3rd – RAM – Alex, Ryan, Mia (2 wins, 1 draw, 5 ends)
 Consolation: - Drop Kicks – Peter, Jim, Dennis (Last game, win, 6 ends)
