Club QR Code in Place

NZ COVID Tracer is a Ministry of Health app that allows you to create a digital diary of places you visit by scanning the official QR codes. This will help contact tracers to quickly identify and isolate anyone who may have been exposed to COVID-19 if there is a further outbreak in New Zealand.

Birkenhead Bowling Club's NZ COVID Tracer QR Code poster generated by the Ministry of Health particular to the Club has finally arrived after a week. This is to support the Government's NZ COVID Tracer app. Copies of the QR poster are displayed at entrances and in other prominent areas. Note: the Club has no access or receives no data from the information gathered by the use of this QR Code or associated app.

Scratchy Raring to Go

Initially not planned to make its return until July, but Level 1 has come around sooner than anticipated. So tomorrow sees Housie/Bingo return with Scratchy raring to get in there calling the numbers and giving away some cash. Get those dabbers at the ready for the first game called at 7pm tomorrow evening, Thursday 18 June. The night winds up by 9pm. Non-members welcome.

Scud Missiles Hit Target

Thursday saw the welcome return of the Club's regular monthly quiz night. A great turn out with nine teams out to claim top spot for the evening. Val Hohepa's "Valuables" kick started their night with a perfect ten in round one, but only picked up three points in the following round, finishing the night down the leader board.

Louise Fox's "Scud Missiles" nailed their first joker in round two with a perfect ten which doubled being their joker round for them and setting them up for a crack at taking out Tim Roskruege's "Barfoots" who had started slow with a six and seven.

New comers "K-ways" showed promise in the first four rounds but after a disastrous "The List" round never recovered to threaten for top spot. The ponderous puzzle proved elusive for the first three rounds before three teams struck it with the remaining teams all answering it correct in the following round.

The race for home after six rounds with two rounds to play, the "Scud Missiles" held a healthy eleven point lead over "Barfoots" but "Barfoots" still had a joker to play while "Scud Missiles" had played both of theirs. Round seven "Barfoots" picked up sixteen points thanks to it being their joker round to pull within one point of "Scud Missiles". Round eight, "Barfoots" picked up a seven to finish on eighty-three, but "Scud Missiles" claimed eight points to finish the night on eighty-five points and in first place two clear of "Barfoots". "Pink Panthers" on seventy-nine points took out the third spot.

Quiz night is free to enter, starts 7pm on the second Thursday in the month with the support of our Quiz Partners Tim Roskruege, Bill Hansen and Barfoot & Thompson Birkenhead.

Come along and give it a go. Next Quiz Night Thursday 9 July.
